The Lost Relic, Pt. 1

04/07/1975

It was a dark and _____Adjective_____ night. I had just recieved a note from Dr. Barnes saying that an illegal corporation going by the name, "The _____Noun_____" has been doing research on a lost relic located somewhere in the jungles of _____Location_____. I quickly jumped into my _____vehicle_____ and took the long and _____Adjective_____ _____number_____ hour drive to his office. When I reached his office, he was eager to see me. He exclaimed, " _____greeting_____!" and quickly rushed me to his study. He showed me the photos of the relic along with his extensive collection of _____Noun Plural_____ and his _____Noun_____. He said, "It was revealed to me that the relic is in fact the Golden _____Noun_____, the one we've been searching for the past _____number_____ years. It is rumoured that this relic has the ability to force others to _____Verb Base Form_____. This company has been known for their unethical practices, and they notoriously _____Verb Base Form_____ their workers. We cannot allow them to take possesion of this artifact. Pack your bags immediately."

I drove home and grabbed my trunk. To survive in the jungle, I knew I would need to bring my _____Noun_____, a journal, and my _____Noun Plural_____ that I cannot live without. After I securely packed those, I tucked my _____Number_____ boxes of _____Noun_____ into the corner. I grabbed a few shirts, pants, and _____Number_____ _____Plural Clothing Items_____. When I finished packing, I made my way to the airport. There, I saw Dr. Barnes in his _____Adjective_____ _____clothing item_____, dressed up and ready to go. We boarded the plane and was attended by a _____Adjective_____ flight attendant. They offered to take our orders for food and drink. I got a glass of water and a warm sandwich, while the doctor ordered a glass of _____Liquid_____ and some _____Adjective_____ _____food_____. It was a long flight, and when we disembarked, we thanked the flight attendant and _____Verb Past Tense_____ the pilot. Our adventure had just begun.
