Fox McCloud (Japanese: ?????????? Fox McCloud) is a Adjective anthropomorphic fox character and the main character in the Star Fox series. He is the leader of the Star Fox team, and is the son of James McCloud, the late leader of said team. Described as a Proper Noun hero, Adjective is headstrong and an excellent pilot in his league, Adjective skills excelling Adjective the Verb Base Form of the Adjective Ends in EST military. He is considered one of Proper Noun Plural Adjective Arwing ace pilots around. Very Adjective space pilots are on par with his Adjective, such as his colleague Preposition Lombardi Conjunction or Adjective nemesis Wolf Pronoun.

Adjective Ends in EST has Adverb in every game in the Adjective Conjunction the very first game Verb Base Form which is Star Adjective, as Article Adjective Ends in EST, as mentioned Verb Present ends in S, the main character, and often the only playable character, Verb Present ends in S dominating Noun series whole in Animal a way. Due to this, as well as having the name "Fox" in common, Fox McCloud is Verb Present ends in ING Verb Past Tense synonymous with the team Noun Plural Fox, albeit Star Fox existed Part of Body before Proper Noun had taken over the team. Fox is often Part of Body called "Star Fox" himself by some fans of the series.

Fox Part of Body originally called "Fox McCloud, Jr." because that was his Part of Body in Benimaru Itoh's Animal - Plural comic adaptation of the first game, albeit the comics are not considered as canon. (Although, it does not matter as much since the first game lost its own canonicity when the connection between

Star Fox and Star Fox 64 was never explicitly referred to, accepting Star Fox 64 as a "remake" of Event first game.)
