More stories at WordBlanks.com

Driving

1. Location _____
2. Classmate _____
3. Number _____
4. Noun _____
5. Verb Present Ends In Ing _____
6. Number _____
7. Emotion Ending In -Ed _____
8. Verb Base Form _____
9. Number _____
10. Noun Plural _____
11. Adjective _____
12. Noun _____
13. Noun _____
14. Activity _____
15. Number _____

Driving

I was sitting in the right turn lane on Smith Street waiting to turn. I was on the way to _____Location_____ to buy a present for my friend _____Classmate_____ birthday party. There were about _____Number_____ cars in front of me waiting for a _____Noun_____ to finish _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ across the street before they could turn. I was at a complete stop when I saw a car coming up behind me at about _____Number_____ miles per hour. I was so _____Emotion ending in -ed_____, I thought I would _____Verb Base Form_____. I tried, but couldn't get out of it's way in time. When it hit me, my car was thrown forward almost _____Number_____ _____Noun Plural_____ lengths. Luckily, the other cars had moved on so I didn't hit any of them. The driver was a _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____ who hit me so hard that the rear hatch of my car stuck out beyond the bumper. The front of the other driver's car looked like a _____Noun_____ and had to be towed away. I've been in pain every day which is keeping me from work and _____Activity_____ practice, which is really important to me. I need to get my car fixed and be reimbursed for my medical bills which are already almost $_____Number_____. What else do you need to know to get this taken care of?

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.