The Alpha Course

Once upon a time there was a man named Seth and he was a Christian. Seth was the kind of _____ Noun to _____ Adverb _____ Verb Base Form rude when placed under a _____ Noun. Seth had a friend named Luke. Seth invited Luke to something known as the Alpha Course. The Alpha course was designed to _____ Verb Base Form people to Christianity without actually letting them know (not that they'd tell you that.)

When Luke went to the course for the first time, he was surprised to find that everyone wasn't wearing traditional Christian uniform - _____ Adjective _____ Clothing, _____ Clothing, _____ Clothing, and _____ Clothing. People there were also _____ Adverb _____ Adjective and engaged in extended small talk - what _____ offensive term for a group of people they were!

After _____ Adjective food was served, Luke, Seth and co sat down and watched a _____ Number minute video "explaining a Christian's viewpoint". In reality the video was filled with the same members of the "general public" saying "I don't know" every _____ Number seconds, and scholars _____ Verb Present ends in ING about the amount of evidence we have on Jesus.

Once the video had _____ Verb Past Tense, the group went into an _____ Adjective room to discuss the topics raised in the video. There were some _____ Adjective tists in the conversation circle. Someone tried to make a point saying that gravity cannot be proved so therefore we MUST have faith in God. Of course, one only needs to observe _____ Noun Plural in space using a _____ Noun to see the OBVIOUS effects of gravity. Next, an auTISTic point was raised: "we have more evidence for the existence of Jesus than we do for _____ First name _____ Last name". We have 100 manuscripts for Jesus. Not _____ Number, not _____ Number, but 100.

After the _____ Adjective discussion, the _____ Single Digit Number athiests present went to the bar to have drinks and everyone else went home to _____ Verb Base Form .

The end.
