Story of lovebirds

He left a single red _____Noun_____ on my _____Noun_____. He wasn't allowed to _____Verb Base Form_____ me _____Noun_____ at _____Proper Noun_____, since my _____Noun_____ had _____Verb Past Tense_____ only six months before. When the time was right, he sent me flowers on my birthday, Valentine's Day, and eventually every anniversary. The guys at work told him he made them look bad. They were joking, but he wasn't. He kept sending me flowers . He made me breakfast in bed. But most importantly, he invited my daughter and her three children to move in with us after she split from her then-husband. What's more romantic than that?
