Winter Break

I so looked forward to winter break. I literally counted down every day in the month of December! The last week of school was the _____ Adjective! We had _____
Noun Plural and sing-alongs and barely any actual school work! Then break started and the first day off from school was _____
Adjective! I could go to sleep whenever and wake up whenever. I didn't have to _____
Verb Base Form about packing my school work or even getting out of my _____
Noun Plural for the day! Day two was cool too. But then, day 3 started to get boring. I ran out of games to play and there is only so much TV one can watch. Christmas was _____
Adjective, of course. But then it got boring again! Well, at least I can choose to be bored for the rest of the year! After all, having a choice is better than not! I wonder when my next break from _____ Noun will be!
