Love and Rain with Lady Liberty

It Verb Present ends in S one of the Adjective Noun Plural in our relationship. While visiting New York City for Melanie's Number birthday we decided to take a Noun of Location to see the Noun of Noun up close and personal. It had been Verb Present ends in ING but we Verb Past Tense on like Adjective Noun Plural anyway. As soon as we Verb Past Tense it started to rain so we ducked into the Location until it seemed the Noun had Verb Past Tense. Unfortunately we couldn't take a Noun inside Pronoun Noun but we ventured out around the base of the Noun to take in as much as we could. That's when it happened. The Adjective Ends in EST, Adjective Ends in EST Noun either of us had ever experienced came down on us. We Adverb sought Noun. We Verb Past Tense up to the base of the Noun and Verb Past Tense ourselves into one of the "V's" of the Adjective plinth. The Noun just came down even harder. We Verb Past Tense ourselves as Adverb together underneath the Number Noun we had only to have it Verb Base Form under the Noun of Adjective Noun. Some might have Verb Past Tense such an event, but we just Verb Past Tense and Verb Past Tense and found it to be a Adverb Adjective Noun.
