my ma

My mom is Adjective and Adjective. So, I use the room in house downstairs, but I have to use my family member ending with s same room in house upstairs 2 Verb Base Form Noun Plural cuz my same room in house doesn't have one. But, my family member ending with s same room in house is always. disgusting cuz he or she doesn't clean it or pick up after herself or himself. Also whenever same he or she Verb Present ends in S a Noun same he or she gets lugid all over the Noun. Anyway, same he or she took a Noun right after me 2day so when same he or she got out I went in to hang up my Noun. There was lugid all over the place and there was like a half foot inch ex of it by the Noun and Noun. I went downstairs and told my mom and she told me to Verb Base Form it up but I said no cuz the Noun was Adjective. So she went up and looked at. Then she started Verb Present ends in ING Adjective words and telling us we both had to go to our rooms. I said it wasn't me but she wouldn't listen. So she Verb Past Tense us into our rooms but before she did I saw the in the room of house. She had used our Noun Noun Plural to clean it up! She used mine to clean up this Adjective liquid by the Noun. I wanted to puke! And at 2:15 she woke up, ran downstairs, slammed all the Noun Plural off, and flung open my Noun (scaring the crap out of me), switched my Noun off yelling I should have been in bed hours ago and that I get no _____<sup>Noun</sup> tomorrow.

It's the summer, I have nothing to do tomorrow, and she never actually told me to go to bed. I _____<sup>hate or love</sup> her so much! Right now I am writing this from my iPod touch in my room with the lights off. She is like this all the time and just sits at home all _____<sup>year week day ex</sup>.
