

Roman Republic

1. Noun
2. Noun
3. Noun
4. Noun
5. Noun
6. Noun

Roman Republic

Upset by the way they were being treated, the people overthrew the last king. The people said NO MORE KINGS. That was the beginning of the _____ Noun _____ Noun - the Senate and the People of Rome. The Roman Republic was run by large group of men. They called themselves members of the _____ Noun. The people of Rome elected the two top Senators. These two top Senators were called _____ Noun. The consuls selected senators from qualifying _____ Noun. You could only be a consul for one year, then you had to be elected by the people again. This system worked very well. That form of _____ Noun lasted for about 500 years in ancient Rome.