Story of lovebirds

The power of           Noun          . If it wasn't for the           Verb Base Form           of           Noun          . They never would have           Verb Past Tense          . And if it was not for the           Verb Past Tense           of Alex she never would have           Verb Past Tense           him. But she           Verb Base Form           and here we are. Texting back and forth talking about           Noun           and           Verb Present ends in ING           really quickly while he was in           Noun           for           Noun           and she was off work recovering from the stress of 15 year olds being           Adjective Ends in EST          .
