We could not expect her to learn all of Maycomb's ways in one day, and we could not hold her responsible when she knew no better.
"TIl be dogged," I said. "I didn't know better than not to read to her, and she held me responsible-listen Atticus, I don't have to go to school!" I was bursting with a sudden thought. "Burris Ewell, remember? He just goes to Nonn on the first day. The Adjective lady reckons she's carried out the law when she gets his name on the roll-"
"You can't do that, Scout," Atticus said. "Sometimes it's better to bend the Nonn a little in special
