each other back at Location in the Fall. Over the rest of the Event, they corresponded frequently

, making First Name of a Person and First Name of a Person anxious that they were always staring into their Noun Plural. They both tried their hand at Verb Present ends in ING, but ultimately, no one measured up to the Adjective person they had just met. When Emilie travelled back to Toronto with all her Noun Plural in a type of transport or vehicle with her dad, August messaged her and asked her out for a Type of Drink. "Unfortunately, my dad and I are going to eat some awesome Food food and watch a Noun. Maybe next time?" (sin city?) When they both found a time that worked, they decided to get together to discuss August composing a Noun for Emilie. Or so it seemed. They spent all night talking about _____ Noun and _____ Noun, and August walked her home. They didn't kiss that night, but Emilie ran up the _____ Noun Plural to call her _____ Noun Plural and tell them she was in love. They lived happily, ever after.
