More stories at WordBlanks.com

Betty Blue and Competency

1. Noun _____
2. Noun Plural _____
3. Noun Plural _____
4. Adjective Ends In Est _____
5. Verb Past Tense _____
6. Verb Past Tense _____
7. Adjective _____
8. Adjective _____
9. Adjective _____
10. Adjective _____
11. Noun _____
12. Noun _____
13. Noun _____
14. Noun _____
15. Proper Noun _____
16. Verb Past Tense _____
17. Noun _____
18. Noun _____
19. Noun _____

Betty Blue and Competency

Betty Blue went down to the local _____Noun_____ to have a few drinks after a long day at work. Her boss had been giving her a hard time and even cutting her paychecks so money was tight. Betty Blue had a few too many _____Noun Plural_____ and started getting louder and louder drawing attention to herself. Long story short, the _____Noun Plural_____ were called and Ms. Betty was put under _____Adjective Ends in EST_____. While the police were trying to _____Verb Past Tense_____ her, she got mad and hit one of the cops. This landed her two charges called obstruction and aggravated assault. When she was in jail, she _____Verb Past Tense_____ to answer questions with the pre-trial evaluator about what happens in court. The evaluator opined her _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ because it was unclear if Ms. Blue understood what happened in a courtroom . The _____Noun_____ court ordered her to Georgia Regional Hospital. Betty Blue met her _____Noun_____ who handed her a _____Noun_____ _____Noun_____ and was told this was her key to being discharged. Eventually Ms. Blue understood that she must know what happens in court, whose in the courtroom, and what each plea means. Once she knew this, Dr. _____Proper Noun_____ _____Verb Past Tense_____ her where Ms. Betty passed her _____Noun_____ and she was sent back to _____Noun_____ so she could continue on with her court _____Noun_____.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.