Betty Blue and Competency

1.	Noun
2.	Noun Plural
3.	Noun Plural
4.	Adjective Ends In Est
5.	Verb Past Tense
6.	Verb Past Tense
7.
8.
	Adjective
	Adjective
11.
12.
	Noun
14.
15.	Proper Noun
16.	Verb Past Tense
17.	Noun
18.	Noun
19.	Noun

Betty Blue and Competency

Betty Blue went down to the local to have a few drinks after a long day at work. Her boss had been giving her a hard time and even cutting her paychecks so money was tight. Betty Blue had a few too many Noun Plural and started getting louder and louder drawing attention to herself. Long story short, the Noun Plural were called and Ms. Betty was put under Adjective Ends in EST. While the police were trying to her, she got mad and hit one of the cops. This landed her two charges called obstruction and aggravated assault. When she was in jail, she to answer questions with the pre-trial evaluator about what happens in court. The evaluator opined her Adjective Adjective because it was unclear if Ms. Blue understood what happened in a courtroom
. The court ordered her to Georgia Regional Hospital. Betty Blue met her who handed her a Noun and was told this was her key to being discharged. Eventually Ms.
Blue understood that she must know what happens in court, whose in the courtroom, and what each plea means.
Once she knew this, Dr. Proper Noun Verb Past Tense her where Ms. Betty passed her Noun and she was sent back to Noun so she could continue on with her court Noun.

©2025 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.