Restroom Wi-Fi Reception Recon

Ladies, you are two of the smartest, most Adjective women in this entire office, and I have come to you today because I need your help. I'll be Adverb honest: I have to take a big Noun in the bathroom, and I need to find a stall with a strong Wi-Fi signal. I mean, data Noun Plural are Adverb expensive and, without being too specific, I'm going to be in there for a very , very Adjective time. I had the lunch special at Cafe el Place name and it's like a Verb ends in ING time Noun in my Body part, if you know what I mean. Anyway, since they removed the Adjective Noun Plural from the men's bathroom, I have a Adjective time concentrating on the Noun at hand. The women's restroom is right next door. So, if you don't mind, go in, check out the Wi-Fi and tell me which area has the most Adjective signal, I would do it myself, but once I sit down, I'm committed for at least Number minutes. We can't be Adverb obvious about this, though, so be Adjective. Got it? Good. Now, please hurry. The turtle is starting to poke his Body part out of his Noun, if you know what I mean.
