Friday the 13th

I've never been a superstitious _____Noun_____, but this past Friday the 13th made me question my _____Noun Plural_____. The first _____Adjective_____ thing I noticed was a black _____Animal_____ crossing my path. That's supposed to be _____Adjective_____ luck, but I didn't think anything of it. Next, I stepped on a crack in the _____Noun_____ and remembered that old saying, Step on a crack and _____Verb_____ your mother's _____Bodypart_____. Uh-oh. Later, while out to dinner, I spilled salt-which is always _____Adjective_____ luck. Then I went to (the) _____Place_____ and tripped and fell into a full length _____Noun_____, which shattered into a million _____Noun Plural_____. Breaking a mirror supposedly brings _____Number_____ year(s) of _____Adjective_____ luck, so now I was really _____Adjective_____.

I decided to go home early to avoid any other _____Adjective_____ encounters. But it only got worse. The moment I got home, I discovered my boyfriend in bed with another _____Noun_____! Next Friday the 13th, I'm not even going to bother _____Verb ends in ING_____ out of _____Country_____.
