Friday the 13th

I've never been a superstitious _____, but this past Friday the 13th made me question my _____

_____. The first _____ thing I noticed was a black _____ crossing my path. That's supposed to be _____ luck, but I didn't think anything of it. Next, I stepped on a crack in the

_____ and remembered that old saying, Step on a crack and _____ your mother's _____. Uh-oh. Later, while out to dinner, I spilled salt-which is always _____ luck. Then I went to (the) _____ and tripped and fell into a full length _____, which shattered into a million

_____. Breaking a mirror supposedly brings _____ year(s) of _____ luck, so now I was really _____.

I decided to go home early to avoid any other _____ encounters. But it only got worse. The moment I got home, I discovered my boyfriend in bed with another _____! Next Friday the 13th, I'm not even going to bother _____ out of _____.
