

Update from Southern States

1. Adjective
2. Verb Present Ends In Ing
3. Adjective
4. Adjective
5. Adverb
6. Celebrity Name
7. Celebrity Name
8. Celebrity Name
9. Celebrity Name
10. Adjective
11. Part Of Body
12. Adjective
13. Verb Base Form
14. Adjective
15. Religion

Update from Southern States

In a/n Adjective affirmation of faith during a time of widespread global pandemic, the governors of several Southern states confirmed Thursday they have exempted religious Verb Present ends in ING from their shelter-in-place orders, arguing that Covid-19 is a/n Adjective virus that wouldn't dare to spread during Repeat Last Verb Present ends in ING. "As far as I can tell, this coronavirus is a/n Adjective disease that knows better than to continue its Adverb outbreak within a house of Repeat Last Verb Present ends in ING, " Florida Gov. Celebrity name said in a statement later echoed by Govs Celebrity name of Tennessee, Celebrity name of Texas, and Celebrity name of Mississippi. "If we were talking about some sort of Adjective virus, people would have cause for worry. But I believe in my Part of Body this highly Adjective pathogen will show respect during Repeat Last Verb Present ends in ING and not do anything to harm the Lord's flock on our day of Verb Base Form. Now, what the virus does to the Adjective people in our community--that's between it and God." At press time, sources confirmed Southern governors had taken steps to ensure all Religion temples would be closed indefinitely.