School Counsellor

Throughout my thirty-year career as a high school _____Noun_____ counsellor, I've worked with just about every kind of dysfunctional _____Noun_____. I've seen teenagers act like spoiled _____Noun Plural_____ just to get attention, I've seen _____Adjective_____ children with _____Adjective_____ _____Noun Plural_____, and I've seen _____Adjective_____ things happen to good _____Noun Plural_____. My greatest success story involved a young _____Noun_____ named _____Female you know_____, who was what we in the business call a/an _____Noun_____ maniac. Her self-definition was centred entirely on _____Plural body part_____. With her _____Adjective_____ behaviour patterns, I was afraid she would end up in what we call a viscous _____Noun_____. I worked with her for _____Number_____ years, teaching her to value her _____Noun_____ more. Eventually she grew up to become a strong, _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____. All thanks to my _____Adjective_____ _____Body part_____ !
