Superhero Short Story

It was a day like no other in Trenton. The time was 7:35 a.m., the time that most would would at work. Every job is, so if there were a disruption in progress, life would not be able to function.
Almost every business in Trenton had everyone come to work except for the Proper Noun.
Proper Noun was missing its packager, Sam. He oversaw sending the gourmet Food to people ordering from their homes. Out of all the days that Sam was not at work, it was International Day Thousands of were ordering from the because it was presented as the best of all the Proper Noun Plural on TripAdvisor.
"Where is Sam?! We need him to ship the Food to people!" Joe, the boss of the Proper Noun , exclaimed. He called Sam on his, almost breaking the screen because of how fast he typed.
Meanwhile, Sam lounged at his apartment watching An Animal Capitalized War. As Thanos was about to snap someone away, he got a call on his phone.
"Hello?" Sam said.
"Sam, why are you not at work? Today is International Day, and you are at home watching An Animal Capitalized War!" Joe screamed into his phone, which made a cry in the background. "Listen, just come to work and as much as you can! I am outside of your apartment in my truck."
Sam exited out of his apartment, still in his, and rode with Joe in his truck. They crashed
