What a year!

2020 was the _____ Adjective year ever! Let me explain. First, in September, we all went to Hoffman to come up with a _____ Verb Present ends in ING list and to hang together. _____ Phase II member was especially good at this! Then, during the fall, we met every _____ duration of time to talk, eat, play music and _____ Verb Base Form together. It was totally amazing and _____ Adjective to get to know each other better through the prompt game and _____ Verb Present ends in ING together. My favorite part was _____ Verb Present ends in ING with _____ Phase II member, _____ Phase II member, and _____ Phase II member.

Fast forward to January, and it was topic time! We chose three topics for the Youth _____ Event: _____ Noun violence, _____ Noun change, and _____ Noun health awareness. I'm especially proud of my work to explain _____ Proper Noun Plural through _____ Verb Present ends in ING and _____ Verb Present ends in ING. But everyone did _____ Adjective work, and I was really excited for the Youth _____ Event.

Then, March showed up, and with it, the _____ Noun virus. That cancelled all of our best laid plans. But we persevered! We continued to meet every week through zoom, and we all worked on videos and other projects to continue thinking. My favorite was _____ Phase II member _____ Noun. It was not the year we expected, but it was one we'll never forget. I have an _____ Adjective piece of advice for my Phase II friends as we head into summer: Stay _____ Adjective! And for our seniors, please come back and visit every
