

Black-Capped Chickadees

1. Silly Word
2. Silly Word
3. Adjective
4. Adjective
5. Place
6. Adjective
7. Body Part
8. Adjective
9. Adjective
10. Plural Animal
11. Food
12. Food
13. Food
14. Plural Animal
15. Something Alive
16. Noun
17. Verb
18. Silly Word
19. Animal
20. Number

Black-Capped Chickadees

The black-capped chickadee (Latin name: _____ silly word _____ silly word _____) is a _____ Adjective _____ North American songbird that lives in _____ Adjective _____ place _____. With its oversized _____ Adjective _____ body part _____ and _____ Adjective _____ body, it's no wonder many people think this bird is totally _____ Adjective _____. In the wild, they mostly eat _____ plural animal _____ during the summer or _____ food _____ and _____ food _____ in the winter, but at bird feeders their favorite foods are _____ food _____ and _____ plural animal _____. They build their nests in holes in dead _____ something alive _____ and line it with soft materials like _____ Noun _____. Chickadees love to _____ verb _____, and flocks of chickadees have many calls and songs that have specific meanings. For example, their song that sounds like "_____ silly word _____" can alert others to predators like _____ animal _____. The oldest chickadee lived to be over _____ number _____ years old.