Her

1.	Adjective - Body
2.	Adjective - Arms
3.	Adjective - Arms
4.	Adjective - Body
5.	Adjective - Face
6.	Adjective - Cheekbones
7.	Adjective - Cheekbones
8.	Adjective - Skin
9.	Adjective - Skin
10.	Adjective - Skin
11.	Adjective - Bones
12.	Adjective - Lips
13.	Adjective - Teeth
14.	Adjective - Teeth
15.	Adjective - Eyes
16.	Adjective - Eyes
17.	Adjective - Eyes

Her

She was	adjective - body	, her	adjective - arms	and	adjective - arms	arms ha	anging limply a	at her side. She lo	oomed over me	because she	was adjec	ctive - body	I looked up in	to her	adjective - face	face.
She had	adjective - cheekbor	and _	adjective - cl	heekbones	_ cheekbones, an	d her	adjective - skin adjective	skin a	appeared stre	tched so	adjective - skin	that at any	moment i	t would rip and	d reveal theadj	ective - bones	oones behind	• adjective	- lips lip	os parted into a f	iendish sm	ile revealing tv	wo rows ofadje	ctive - teeth,	adjective - tee	teeth.	However,	these horrible fea	atures were	e all the more terrifying w	when compared	to hera	djective - eyes	eyes. The	y wereadject	ctive - eyes	and adjective	, the c	color of rich,	warm coffee.	. Eyes that s	parkled in the li	ght of the	quarter moon c	coming through the	e window; eyes	that made me	e forget that a	all but five r	ninutes ago she	was a lifele	ess corpse on n	ny
laboratory	floor

©2025 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.