More stories at WordBlanks.com

The Interview

1. Title _____
2. Surname _____
3. Sillyword _____
4. Proper Noun _____
5. Noun _____
6. Feeling _____
7. Military Rank _____
8. Verb _____
9. Noun _____
10. Number _____
11. Time-Length _____
12. Same-Title _____
13. Same-Surname _____
14. Verb Ends In Er _____
15. Adjective _____
16. Verb _____
17. Verb _____
18. Verb _____
19. Time _____
20. Time-Period _____
21. Noun _____
22. Same-Surname _____
23. Number _____

24. Same-Sillyword _____

25. Adjective _____

26. Noun _____

27. Noun Plural _____

28. Same-Noun _____

29. Adjective Ends In Est _____

30. Same-Proper Noun _____

31. A Question _____

32. Number _____

33. Time-Length _____

The Interview

Interviewer 1: Ah, _____Title_____ _____Surname_____, welcome, welcome, my name is _____Sillyword_____ Heart.

Interviewer 2: And I'm _____Proper Noun_____ _____Noun_____. Very _____Feeling_____ to have you.

Interviewee: No, not at all, thanks for having me.

Interviewer 1: So, just to clarify, you've applied for the position of _____Military rank_____ _____Verb_____ at the _____Noun_____ industries?

Interviewee: That is correct, yes.

Interviewer 2: And you're aware your salary will be _____Number_____ Pounds a _____Time-length_____, is that ok?

Interviewee: That's more than enough for me, thanks.

Interviewer 1: Now, _____Same-title_____ _____Same-surname_____, it says in your CV that you used to be a _____Verb ends in ER_____ at your last job?

Interviewer

2: Yes, and your numbers are _____Adjective_____. How do you think that you can continue your success with us?

Interviewee: Well, I'd apply the same three steps I did at my old job; _____Verb_____, _____Verb_____ and _____Verb_____. I'd come into work every day at _____Time_____ P.M, leave at _____Time-period_____ and whatever I faced that day

I'd tackle head-on with those three steps.

Interviewer 2: Ah, the old _____Noun_____ method. I like your style, _____Same-surname_____.

Interviewer 1: Now, we have around _____Number_____ candidates for this role, what is it about you that will make you stand out from the rest of them?

Interviewee: Well, _____Same-sillyword_____, I'd say that's my _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____ and my ability to use it under pressure, even in the most trying _____Noun Plural_____ I'm always calm because I know my _____Same-noun_____ can get me out of trouble. It's even got me out of a couple of speeding tickets.

Interviewer 1: Wonderful. Well, I think this may be one of the _____Adjective Ends in EST_____ interviews I've ever conducted. Is there anything you want to add, _____Same-proper noun_____?

Interviewer 2: Yes, just quickly, _____A question_____.

Interviewee: I'd say so, absolutely.

Interviewer 2: We'll be in touch within the next _____Number_____ _____Time-length_____.

Interviewee: Fantastic! Thank you.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.