A Thanksgiving Story

I felt very [_____ emotion _____] this year at Thanksgiving. [_____ person _____] was supposed to celebrate with us but decided to [_____ Verb Base Form _____] instead. That meant I had to make the turkey myself. Instead of the traditional recipe, I followed the one from [_____ A Celebrity _____]'s cookbook.

The recipe:

1. Get a [_____ Adjective _____] turkey from the market.
2. Before you cook it, you need to fill it with [_____ things _____].
3. Cook the turkey for [_____ number _____] degrees for [_____ number _____] hours.
4. The turkey is done when it looks [_____ Adjective _____].
5. Turkey goes well with [_____ Food _____], [_____ Food _____], and [_____ Food _____].
6. A perfect dessert you can eat is [_____ Food _____].

Thanksgiving wouldn't have been that bad except the food attracted a wild [_____ Animal _____] from [_____ place _____] that ate everything except for the [_____ Food _____]... so we were all left hungry. That's why next year I hope we get invited to [_____ relative _____]'s house.
