Secret Santa

In a not so distant past but what seems like years ago, 4 amazing women were brought together by beer and the want to get to know new In just a few hours they discovered the struggle of using money, that 2 of them both worked at and they all shared a love of crime and From that day forward the relationship blossomed into a beautiful For the next 4 months, life seemed great. They would go out to dinner, go verb Base Form and overall just supported one another (with Sarah constantly trying to set Victoria up along the way). Fast forward to March 16th, a stay at home order is issued. Slowly one by one start to disappear. First Adrienne, she mode of transportation across the country and end up in Tennessee to be with the love of her life. Then Victoria sells all her belonging and begins to travel the country in her Suddenly the wolf pack of 4 has shrank to 2. Anna and Sarah continue to get together and their lives but a part of them was always missing. The thing that keeps each girl going is the knowledge that one day thy would be together again and theanimal pack would be whole. July 3rd the girls will be reunited, however there is a twist. Having Adrienne, Anna and Victoria looking up at Sarah and Alec exchange their vows just doesn't seem right. What seems right is having the three of them stand at the alter beside Sarah. I am so grateful to have met you all. YOu have truly become some of my closest friends and cannot imagine how I would have survived COVID without all. I would love nothing more then for you three to be my bridemaids.
