My Old Dirt Bike

always loved riding dirt           Noun          .           Pronoun           remember the first time           Pronoun           ever rode one.

I drove off my uncle           First name           bank right into his giant pond. I had to let my bike air out before I could attempt to ride it again. When           Pronoun           got my first           Year           Honda XR70.           Pronoun           was the happiest kid on Earth.           Pronoun           got my helmet and my gloves and started riding around my Place          . Then later that day we drove it over to my uncle           First name                     Place           to ride in the Place          .           Pronoun           crashed only three times then           Pronoun           was riding that bike like Pronoun           had it all my life. The truth is,           Pronoun           love that bike like a brother.
