

Missing Pet Returns

1. First Name _____
2. Last Name _____
3. Noun _____
4. Verb Base Form _____
5. Noun _____
6. Noun _____
7. Noun _____
8. Verb Present Ends In Ing _____
9. Noun Plural _____
10. Noun _____
11. Verb Present Ends In Ing _____
12. Noun Plural _____
13. First Name _____
14. Last Name _____
15. Noun _____
16. Adjective _____
17. Last Name _____
18. Noun _____
19. Verb Past Tense _____
20. Verb Past Tense _____
21. Noun _____
22. Verb Base Form _____

Missing Pet Returns

Nearly two weeks had passed since _____ First Name _____ Last Name _____ and her children had seen their _____ Noun _____, Pumpkin.

At first, the disappearance didn't immediately alarm the family because it wasn't too unusual for him to _____ Verb Base Form _____ -- he's an indoor/outdoor _____ Noun _____, they said. But after not seeing him the _____ Noun _____ prior, they knew something was up the morning of Jan. 18.

"I wanted to give him a _____ Noun _____ to come home before _____ Verb Present ends in ING _____," the owner said, but eventually their family hit the _____ Noun Plural _____ to try to find their missing _____ Noun _____. "We had spent hours _____ Verb Present ends in ING _____ the neighborhoods and looking into the _____ Noun Plural _____ we received."

Thirteen days had gone by when _____ First Name _____ Last Name _____ and children spotted a _____ Noun _____, similar in color to their own, on their _____ Adjective _____ patio when returning home on Jan. 30. _____ Last Name _____ home is about three blocks away from the owner's home.

Finally, the owner made her way to go and pick up their _____ Noun _____. Her daughters, who were at school when Crutchfield reached out to Watt, _____ Verb Past Tense _____ and _____ Verb Past Tense _____ after learning about their _____ Noun _____ return home. She said her son, who is young, was mostly glad that the family didn't have to _____ Verb Base Form _____ anymore.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.