Conferences

Hi, Ms. Proper Noun Plural ! I'm so Emotion adjective to see you here on Zoom -- it's been quite the Adjective quarter! Let's kick off our conference, shall we? I'll pull up the the report card. You can see that your student has Number absences. Exclamation ! That's the Adjective Ends in EST number I've seen.

I want to be sure to point out your student's grade in class with Full Name of a Person . That grade means they're likely on track to earn a Number on the AP test in May! You know, in class on Zoom, they're always Verb Present ends in ING -- that's probably a big reason why they are earning that grade .

Before you go, I'd like to confirm you are receiving school robodials. We always send messages when the Noun Plural are acting Adverb .

Have a great spring break and we'll see you at Location in April!
