

sdafadf

1. Adjective
2. Noun
3. Verb Past Tense
4. Adjective
5. Noun

sdafadf

It's another [_____ Adjective _____.] day. Barry [verb] into the Violation Ticket Centre and [adverb] sits down at his desk. He opens up his email and sees [number] emails with red exclamation marks next to them. He lets out a [adverb] sigh and gets to work.

He works [adverb] because he has a meeting with [name] for [adjective][noun] in the morning. While he's answering emails, there is a [noun] outside his office. This [_____ Noun _____.] had a number of [plural noun]. Barry continues to [verb]. When he finished, he barely makes it to his meeting with [_____ Verb Past Tense _____.]. At the meeting, they talked about [_____ Adjective _____.][_____ Noun _____.].

At this point, we are already at lunchtime. He has a lunch date with [name] at [location]. Barry spent [dollar amount] and complains he's the [adjective] of managers. On the [_____ Repeat Last Verb Past Tense _____.] back, he [verb] into [name]. They talked about [noun] before returning to the [noun].

When he got back to the office. JJ Makhdoom was there waiting for him. He has a [adjective] problem with [court location]. Barry calls [name] at [court location] but things got heated and he was transferred to