Daphne Does Disneyland

Daphne's favorite place to vacation is Disneyland! Some of her favorite Noun Plural at the park are the Adjective rollercoasters and of course Splash Noun! Other amusement park rides she likes are the bumper cars, which have little Noun Plural that you drive and run into other Noun Plural, and the merry-go-round where you get to sit on a big Noun. It also wouldn't be Disneyland without the food! There are lots of Adjective things to eat. Daphne likes to start off with a Noun leg, with a big cup of Noun to drink-- she always gets the souvenir cup too! For snacks there is popcorn, cotton Noun, and her absolute favorite, the Adjective funnel cake! After all of that eating, and Verb Present ends in ING the rides, Daphne wants to catch a show next, or get a photo op with her favorite Disney character, First Name of a Person. Oh no! We can't forget It's A/An Adjective World, or Noun Plural of the Caribbean. The lines are usually long, but Daphne doesn't mind Verb Present ends in ING. Last, but not least, as the Noun goes down, Daphne and her family get a/an Adjective row seat to the electric parade and fireworks show! What a magical day, at the happiest place on Noun!
