Charlie's Famous Chicken Soup Recipe

Ahhh..home cookin'. There's nothing like it, and nothing beats Charlie's chicken soup on a/an Adjective day! We are so lucky that Charlie has decided to share with us his Noun famous, top secret, chicken soup recipe.

1. In a bowl, combine Number cups broth, Number chopped Nouns, an/an Adjective of salt, a tablespoon of Noun paste, and of course Number chickens.

2. Cook the mixture on Adjective heat and mix Adverb. Sprinkle with Verb Past Tense onions and Adjective carrots.

3. When soup comes to a boil, remove from Noun, and season to taste with Noun.

4. Every bowl of chicken soup needs a side of Noun. You can use it to Verb Base Form up the broth, or just eat it plain. If you don't have that, you can use Noun Plural as a substitute, but Charlie does not recommend it.

This recipe gets Number stars and Number thumbs up! Thanks for sharing, Charlie! We cannot wait to try it for ourselves!
