Zero and his Diamond Door

My name is Zero. Nice to meet you! I am very Adjective. I am so Adjective that I bought a Noun. At the Noun, I found Noun Verb Present ends in ING in the Noun! I dug up the Repeat Last Noun and ran home as fast as I could. I went to hide the Repeat Last Noun upstairs, but my door was missing! Turns out, my door was being replaced with a brand new Adjective door. I had no where to hide my Repeat Last Noun, so I decided to hide it behind my Part of Body until I get my new door and make a secret compartment.
