Soren's 10th Birthday Adventure

SOREN'S BIRTHDAY ADVENTURE:

Ten years ago, when the _____Object Noun_____ faced the _____Object Noun_____ at just the right angle, an exceptionally _____Adjective_____ baby came into the world, surrounded by _____Noun_____.

At the same time, on a(n) _____Adjective_____ planet called Earth, a baby named Soren also came into the world, surrounded by love.

_____Very Big Number_____ _____Adjective_____ kilometers separated them, but parts of their childhoods were similar.

The alien child, named Dalgrish, _____Verb Past Tense_____ all the local, abandoned snarlag dens and _____Adverb_____ gill-glopped _____Noun Plural_____ for fun.

Soren played in parks and libraries and learned to _____Verb Base Form_____ all on his own.

Dalgrish looked at their _____Colour_____ sky and wondered "_____Exclamation_____ To think that I live in this _____Adjective_____ place!"

Soren looked at his own, _____Adjective_____ sky and wondered "_____Exclamation_____ To think that I live in this mysterious place!"

They grew older still.

Over time, Dalgrish found _____Number_____ blurks to protect from _____Adjective_____ danger, especially in the season of _____Noun Plural_____ and volcanoes.

Meanwhile, Soren gained a younger brother and two cousins and a(n) _____Adjective_____ puppy to share _____Adverb_____ in the wonders of his world.

When

Dalgrish turned 10, giant snarlags _____Verb Past Tense_____ to reclaim their ancient dens, just as the _____Noun_____ of Eshildu had foretold. It was time for the child to _____Verb Base Form_____ for a new adventure.

And when Soren turned 10... well, but that's where the _____Noun_____ ends, because Soren's story has always been his own to tell. And even if he never gets to meet with every wonder in our _____Adjective_____ galaxy, including any alien children born at exactly the same _____Unit of Time_____, that story will be a gift that keeps on _____Verb Present ends in ING_____. Why? Because every story is _____Adjective_____ -- and because every story is unique, each one simply has to be _____Verb Past Tense_____ as we go.

So, happy birthday, Dalgrish!

And happy _____Special Day_____, Soren!

May all your _____Noun Plural_____ be _____Adjective_____ and good. :)
