I'll Never Forget Summer Camp

I couldn't wait to have a-an Adjective summer at camp that year. My mom reminded me to pack my favorite Noun, so that I wouldn't feel Adjective on the trip. There were lots of Adjective faces on the bus, each person holding a-an Noun. I knew I would fit right in.

Once we got to Camp Proper Noun, my Part of Body couldn't hide my excitement! We got to choose our own cabins, which looked a lot like Location and smelled just like a-an Noun. I definitely didn't expect that. I chose the bed that seemed the most Adjective. I felt very lucky to be there.

My camp counselor's name was Full Name of a Person. He-She was very Adjective, somewhat like a Noun. He-She said to me, Are you ready to Verb Base Form for the rest of the summer? I looked him-her in the eyes and exclaimed, Interjection

Our camp had many Adjective activities, such as running around with a Noun and jumping into a Noun. My personal favorite, however, was when Number camper-s had to carry a-an Noun Adverb to the finish line. My counselor said I would probably be best at Verb Present ends in ING the Noun during the final competition. I ended up getting Number -th -st place, and let me tell you, I felt Adjective after the whole thing.

On

the last day of camp, I made a Noun out of Noun so that I wouldn't forget these Adjective memories. When we waved goodbye to the counselors, a few campers started Verb Present ends in ING . I thought it the perfect ending to a-an Adjective summer. It was the greatest summer I had in my youth.
