College Essay

I have never been more _	Adjective	than when I walked	off the bus on my	Number	_ day of school.
The initial Adjective	of finding an	d boarding the corre	ect Transportation	had worn	off over the course of the ride, and in	its place was und	certainty. I'd never b	peen on the campus	s; I'd never ever	been to this part of I sto	ood by a sign tha	t said the "don't feed	1 theAnimal	" and looked	in vain for another sign. I had nobod	y to call except 1	myFamily Member	, who lived in	a different stat	e and knew less than I did. At that momer	nt, I didn't really	have any other choi	ce but to steel myse	elf and choose	to be Adjective .
I picked a direction and s	tarted Verb Pr	resent ends in ING . I	went in and out of	a building that	turned out to be the Noun, and th	nen through a bui	ilding that housed th	ne pool. When I fin	ally crossed pat	hs with someone who looked like they also	attended the sch	nool, they told me th	ne building I was lo	ooking for didn'	t exist. At this point, I considered	Verb Present ends in ING	I thought abo	ut hiding out by the	Noun	_ and trying again the next day, but I couldn	't let myself give	e up. I tried the build	ling across the path	n. This building	was not my building either, but this ti	me I got lucky a	nd I found what I no	eeded: a Noun	·
I found my building and	walked into the f	ïrst-day assembly ju	ast in time to hear t	he director say,	"Welcome to High Sc	hool. I hope you	have a great year."	And I knew I wou	ıld.
