Diabuddies Forever

When I was little I always _____ to _____ Adjective junk food. But then the doctor told me that I had _____ Noun Plural. I was so _____ Adjective! I didn't really know what _____ meant. Would I still be able to eat _____ Adjective food? Would I still be able to _____ Verb Base Form? I had a lot to learn about _____ Noun Plural! My _____ Proper Noun helped me a lot. Then I got used to _____ Noun Plural. But I didn't have any friends who had _____ Noun Plural. That's when I started to feel _____ Adjective. Then one day I found the _____ Noun club. I was so _____ Adjective! I joined the club and met lots of cool people who had _____ Noun Plural. The meetings were _____ Adjective because we often _____ Verb Past Tense together and _____ Verb Past Tense together. I didn't feel so _____ Adjective anymore. The best part was _____ Verb Present ends in ING together. And I never feel weird for having _____ Noun Plural!
