My Dreamy Husband

My husband first name and I have been married for number years, and boy am I glad I Verb Past Tense such a Adjective man. Over the years, we have had 3 kids, named alcohol, animal, and Noun. Our life can get very busy sometimes. Especially when our size (food have sport going on. But even when our Adjective life is busy, special moments remind me of the Adjective times we had when we were younger. In elementary middle or high school he always used to stare at my color eyes in school subject class. One day after class, he finally Verb Past Tense. We ended up getting along quite horrible great ect. After a few weeks of talking, we were hanging out at a place and he told me he liked me. The animal plural I got in my stomach! I had liked him this whole time too. Until we graduated high school, we would do all sorts of Adjective things. Verb Present ends in ING at the a place, pranking Principle formal last name Mrs or Mr . by putting liquid in his or hers coffee type and so much more. He is still as Adjective as he was in our school years. But I do miss all of those memories we had all those long short ect years ago.
