Half Life Quotes 2

"So Corporal, do we meet at last. Please, don't think that I've been avoiding you, a great many matters require my attention in these times. I do hope you understand, and now I require a further on your part: I cannot close my report until every loose end has been tied up. The biggest embarrassment has been Black facility, but I think that's finally taken care of itself."
a nuclear detonates in the background
"Quite so. But there is still the lingering matter of witnesses. I admit I have a fascination with those who adapt and against all odds they rather remind me of Person If for no other reason, I have argued to preserve you for a time.
While I believe a civil like yourself understands the importance of discretion, my employers are not quite so trusting and rather than continually subject you to the human temptation of Verb ending in ING modifying a noun all, we have decided to convey you somewhere where you can do no possible harm and where no harm can come to I'm sure you can imagine that there are worse alternatives"
