More stories at WordBlanks.com

The Landlady

1. First Name _____
2. Last Name _____
3. Adjective _____
4. Adjective _____
5. Adjective _____
6. Adjective _____
7. Noun _____
8. Person _____
9. Adjective _____
10. Person _____
11. Noun _____
12. Noun _____
13. Noun _____
14. Person _____
15. Adjective _____
16. Last Name _____
17. Adjective _____
18. Body Part _____
19. Person _____
20. Noun _____
21. Noun _____
22. Noun _____
23. Verb Past Tense _____

24. Person _____

25. Noun Plural _____

The Landlady

A young man _____First Name_____ _____Last Name_____ is traveling in a _____Adjective_____ winter night and seeks a place to stay. After searching a lot, he comes across a _____Adjective_____ house. He rings the bell and an old _____Adjective_____ welcomes him inside.

He signs the guest book and gives all the required details. While filling up the guest book, he reads the names and details of other guests who previously stayed there and finds their names quite _____Adjective_____.

The old _____Noun_____ offers some food and drinks to _____Person_____ but he refuses as he is _____Adjective_____ and wants to go to bed. However, they have a conversation over some tea. _____Person_____ notices some peculiar things about the living room. The _____Noun_____ is sitting quietly in the cage and a _____Noun_____ is lying near the _____Noun_____.

While talking, _____Person_____ asks about the other guests and the lady starts saying _____Adjective_____ things. She says that one of her guests, Mr. _____Last Name_____, had _____Adjective_____, soft _____body part_____.

_____Person_____ asks if the _____Noun_____ is alive. The lady says neither the _____Noun_____ nor the _____Noun_____ is alive. He panics and wants to get out immediately. He realizes that the names which appeared familiar were the names given in the newspaper about people who mysteriously _____Verb Past Tense_____. Finally, _____Person_____ asks if there have been any other _____Noun Plural_____, in the last three years, at the boarding house. The lady says none but him.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.