The history of the chicken!

Once apon a time there was a Adjective, Adjective	Noun, they had no use and just flopped around, everywhere!!!!
When ever someone would see a they would say "	Adjective , Adjective
But One day the decide that they should try and be	Adjective
So they showed the world how and Adjective and Adjective	_ they are!
But how????
They meet anAdjective andAdjective Noun	call Noun and he told them what they should do!
So they went to the and gave them an egg, the No	were meant to see a baby chicken
be born and then love all Noun but instead, the	Noun ate it!: (
So that is how are loved all around the Noun	!
Because they give us Food!
