More stories at WordBlanks.com

The Red Wristband Horror Story

1. Profession _____
2. Noun Plural _____
3. Color _____
4. Color _____
5. Adjective _____
6. Noun Plural _____
7. Noun _____
8. Noun Plural _____
9. Number _____
10. Room _____
11. Person _____
12. Room _____
13. Noun _____
14. Body Part _____
15. Emotion Eg Annoyed _____
16. Body Part _____
17. Color _____
18. Body Part _____
19. Color _____
20. Verb Past Tense _____

The Red Wristband Horror Story

A _____profession_____ was working at a hospital, a hospital where the patients were tagged with coloured _____Noun Plural_____. _____color_____: alive. _____color_____: _____Adjective_____.

One night, the doctor was instructed to get a few _____Noun Plural_____ from the basement of the hospital, and so he headed to the lift. The lift doors opened and there was a _____Noun_____ inside, minding her own business. _____Noun Plural_____ were allowed to roam around the hospital to stretch, especially those who have stayed long. The rule was to be back in their rooms before _____number_____.

The doctor smiled at the patient before pressing the number for the _____room_____. He found it unusual that the woman didn't have a button already pressed. He wondered if _____person_____ was heading to the _____room_____ too.

The lift finally reached the floor where the doors opened. In the distance a _____Noun_____ was limping towards the elevator, and in a panic the doctor slammed the elevator button to close. It finally did and the lift began to ascend back up, the doctor's _____body part_____ pounding.

"Why did you do that? He was trying to use the lift." The woman stated, _____emotion eg annoyed_____.

"Did you see his _____body part_____?" The doctor asked, "It was _____color_____. He died last night. I would know because I did his surgery."

The woman lifted her _____body part_____. He saw _____color_____. She _____Verb Past Tense_____. "Like this one?"

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.