Get Smart!

This was a spy spoof TV series in the 1960's. Maxwell is secret agent for CONTROL, a covert government agency. Their primary purpose is to thwart the evil of KAOS, an international criminal organization. Max reports to his boss, known only as 'the job title . He is usually Verb Past Tense by the Adjective female agent 99
. Eventually, they fall in and get married. Sometimes, while on assignment, he gets from agent, who is usually hiding in an unusual place, such as a
, vending machine, or inside a Max is often opposed by top KAOS agent, Siegfried, who speaks with a thickaccent. Max usuallyverb Present ends in S into trouble, but always manages to save the day! He's also had a few catch phrases: Before he embarks on a mission, his boss warns him of thedanger he'll be in. He always replies "Andverb Present ends in ING it!"
Many times he'll goof up and do something to apologize for, usually to his boss. So, he'll say "
Sorry about that, same job title !"
When he gets captured by spies, he tries to lie his way out of danger by starting off "Would you". He continues on until he is out of danger and turns the tables on his people .
It lasted 5 seasons and won several First Name of a Person awards.
