Spring Cleaning!

Every Spring, [First Name of a Person] says it's time to clean and refresh our home. This year, we started by making a list of chores. First, I picked up all the [Household Item] off the floor. Next, [First Name of a Person] helped me sort through my [Noun Plural ] and [Noun Plural ]. After I put those away, we [Adverb] moved on to the next task. We swept the floor and vacuumed the carpet, but the vacuum broke. It was jammed with a [Adjective] [Noun]. To our surprise, we also found [Number] [Noun Plural ] between the cushions. After lunch, we wiped down the countertops and cleaned out the refrigerator. We tossed old [Food] and [Food] before adding new groceries. I filled a bucket with [Noun] and mopped the floor before wiping down the cabinets and walls. We were careful not to slip on the [Adjective] floor! I was surprised how [Adjective] the walls were! We cleaned the laundry machine before washing our [Item of Clothing Plural ]. Lastly, I took out the garbage. It was [Adverb] heavy because it was so full of [Noun Plural ]. [Exclamation], [Full Name of a Person] always says, "Don't forget to clean your [Household Item ]". Now, we're done! Spring cleaning isn't always [Adjective], but I always feel [Emotion] when we're done!
