The secret

When _____<sup>Noun</sup> was around _____<sup>Noun</sup> years old I was given a _____<sup>Noun</sup> from my friend. She told me that she liked someone. I asked who the person was, but she wouldn't tell me. I told her that if she told me I promised that I wouldn't tell anyone that she liked someone, nor who it was. Then, she finally told me who it was and I was surprised. I felt like I had to tell someone but I couldn't because I _____<sup>Verb Past Tense</sup> that I wouldn't tell anyone. I couldn't do that to my friend, but I did it anyway. So I went and told my other friend and I told her that she can't tell anyone. I don't know if she was the one that told, but somehow, when a week goes past and almost everyone knew the secret. It started a fight. It was not a physical fight thank goodness but a fight over social media. First, the fight started off through texts. Both _____<sup>Animal - Plural</sup> start texting each other mean things about one another. After that, they both started _____<sup>Adjective</sup> on TikTok commenting _____<sup>Noun</sup> things about each others _____<sup>Noun</sup> posts. Lastly a certain group of people started pretending like they all liked the person that my friend did. That's when I learned that you can't trust all of your friends with secrets.
