A Crazy Advisory Year!

"What a year!" thought Ms. Patton, as she sat at her _____Noun_____ on June 8th. "2022-23 was quite _____Adjective_____. And it wouldn't have been so _____Adjective_____ if it hadn't of been for my Advisory class!" Ms. Patton began to think back to everything that _____Verb Past Tense_____ that year in Advisory. She would never forget all the kookiness of it all. Although she was excited to have some _____Noun_____ and quiet, she might miss the sound of Isabel dropping her water bottle for the hundredth time. What would she do without all of Scarlette's _____Adjective_____ commentary and _____Adjective_____ answers to the check-in question?! She was definitely going to miss Grace's homemade brownies, although she still wants to bring some pie to Isabella. Ms. Patton thought about Brett and Caden working on _____Noun_____, while Gabe and Andy would play games. Makenzie would answer the phones and take the bus passes to the _____Noun_____. Ms. Patton thought about Liam disappearing for two sessions at a time and returning right at the _____Noun_____. She can still picture Mia looking up _____Adjective_____ videos on the laptop and showing Hunter. She could imagine Morenike also looking up funny _____Adjective_____ online while Frank and Grace were bickering again. Of course she'll never forget Sienna and Isabel teaching her the Spanish word for 'flip flop'! It was a lot of fun and thinking back, Ms. Patton was going to miss the _____Adjective_____ Advisory. She knew they would all do well in high school. "Maybe some of them will email or drop by to say hi," she thought.

Thanks for all the fun!
