A Crazy Year in Advisory!

"What a year!" thought Ms. Patton, as she sat at her _____Noun_____ on June 8th. "2022-23 was quite _____Noun_____. And it wouldn't have been so _____Adjective_____ if it hadn't of been for my Advisory class!"

Ms. Patton began to think back to everything that happened that year in Advisory. She would never forget all the _____Adjective_____ of it all. Although she was excited to have some _____Noun_____ and quiet, she might miss the sound of Isabel dropping her water bottle for the hundredth time. What would she do without all of Scarlette's _____Adjective_____ commentary and _____Adjective_____ answers to the check-in question?! She was definitely going to miss Grace's homemade brownies at the birthday parties, although she still wants to bring some pie to Isabella . Ms. Patton thought about Brett and Caden working _____Adverb_____ on Math, while Gabe and Andy would play all sorts of games. Makenzie would _____Adverb_____ answer the phones and take the bus passes to the _____Noun_____. Ms. Patton thought about Liam disappearing for two sessions at a time and _____Adverb_____ returning right at the bell. She can still picture Mia looking up _____Adjective_____ videos on the laptop and showing Hunter. She could imagine Morenike also looking up _____Adjective_____ things online while Frank and Grace were bickering again. Of course she'll never forget Sienna and Isabel teaching her the Spanish word for 'flip flop'! It was a lot of fun and thinking back, Ms. Patton was going to miss the _____Adjective_____ Advisory. She knew they would all do well in high school.

"Maybe some of them will email or drop by to say hi," she thought.

Either way, she knew that they were going to do great wherever they were going.

Thanks for all the fun this year! Ms. Patton
