

Bowling green karate

1. Noun
2. Verb Present Ends In Ing
3. Noun
4. Noun
5. Noun
6. Adverb
7. Verb Base Form
8. Verb Past Tense
9. Adjective
10. Noun Plural
11. Adjective

Bowling green karate

In the late 1960's, Harriett was a Noun player and gymnast at Upper Scioto Valley High School in Alger. Rick liked Verb Present ends in ING weights, playing Noun , and playing football before he grew his Noun long. Rick was also a bit caught up in the martial arts craze of the time and liked practicing Noun .

In the early 70's Harriett and Rick were dating at Bowling Green and were Adverb trying to Verb Base Form each other. On one of their dates, Harriett was demonstrating a parallel bar routine on some hand rails at the entrance to one of the buildings on campus. Not to be outdone, Rick demonstrated his Repeat Last Noun moves he picked up from comic books and Bruce Lee. Their timing was perfect. Rick Verb Past Tense a kick right to Harriett's dismounting stomach, doubling her over. Rick was very Adjective and helped her back to her Noun Plural . For some reason, Harriett decided to keep going out with him. How Adjective !