

jsma @ psu madlibs

1. Adjective
-

jsma @ psu madlibs

Have you ever been to the JSMA at PSU? It is a [Adjective] gallery space currently filled with [adjective] art pieces created by artist, Hung Liu, [number] years ago. These artworks hold a range of different emotions, some people report feeling [emotion] and others feel [other emotion] after [verb ending in -ing] the gallery space. This year, Friendtorship is inspired by the [color] and [color] [plural noun] that Hung Liu painted. One piece in the room features a(n) [adjective] [noun] surrounded by [color] corn. Another piece includes two [adjective] people, one holding a(n) [adjective] baby and riding on the backs of two [plural animal]. In the background, there are [number] flying [plural animals]. Rumor has it that when [celebrity] visited the space, they were so [emotion] that they gifted all of [city or state] free [plural noun]. Last week, a rabid [animal] got loose in the gallery and was [adverb] [verb] all over the gallery for [number] hours. We had to [verb] and [verb] to catch it and bring it to [place] to be set free. If you enjoyed this exhibit, say "[exclamation] If you have any questions, ask [imaginary character], they have all the answers.