2024 is almost here so time for the 2023 recap: Surprise surprise, but lots of time _____ Verb Present ends in ING _____ and practicing mountaineering skills - and actually climbing a few peaks too. One beaver may have even joined me in climbing to the top of Mount Baker in Washington (Am I named after it? Is named after me? We'll never know.). Someone even got a picture of us on the peak. Now that I think it about though - I got Covid for the first time during that climb - was it the beaver who gave it to me? Between Covid and it being a bit of a year of injuries - I didn't go on nearly as many mountain climbs or rock climbing adventures as I had hoped. Hopefully more in 2024 - perhaps you'll join me to climb to the top of a _____ Noun _____.
